GRANT WRITING AND PRESENTATION FOR SCIENCE, ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

Date : 11 - 14 October 2021 (Monday - Thursday)
Time : 9.00 am - 1.00 pm
Platform : Microsoft Teams

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Understand important principles of grant writing
- Formulate a catchy title
- Configure the state of research
- Formulate aims and objectives of grant proposal
- Design the work plan
- Budgeting
- Assessment criteria
- Presenting the proposal idea

COURSE CONTENT

- Overview and grouping
- Requirements of grant proposal
- Principles of grant writing
- Practical 1 – Sample of executive summary
- Sections of grant proposal - Part A
  - Title
  - Summary
  - State of research
- Sections of grant proposal - Part B
  - Aim
  - Objective
- Sections of grant proposal - Part B
  - Work plan
- Sections of grant proposal - Part B
  - Budget
- References
- Assessment criteria- Part 1
- Assessment criteria- Part 2
- Knowing your audience/reviewer/funding agency
- Presenting your proposal in 15min
- Summary of the workshop

HOW TO JOIN?

Please login to web2 and click Intranet > Staff Portal > E-Training System > Application Form.

- Please submit the online application for HoD/Dean/Director's recommendation.
- Please apply early to avoid disappointment as places are limited.

NOTE

Please reschedule your class before registering for the above training so that you can join the entire training session.

Participants are required to switch on video throughout the training session for our record purposes.

Application will be accepted on a first come first served basis.

CONTACT

Ms Yeoh Tyng Tyng
03-90860288 ext. 805
yeohtt@utar.edu.my

Encik Mohd Izad Ismat
05-4688888 ext. 2568
izads@utar.edu.my

Website:
cccd.utar.edu.my

Facebook:
facebook.com/UTARCCCD

Twitter:
https://twitter.com/CccdUtar

LinkedIn:
https://www.linkedin.com/in/utar-cccd/

CENTRE FOR CORPORATE & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

TRAINER

Professor Dr Sumathi Sethupathi is from the Department of Environmental Engineering, Faculty of Engineering and Green Technology, UTAR.